Students perform at the mall

Knights of Columbus donate to Arc

At their annual Christmas dinner on Dec. 18, The Westminster Knights of Columbus Council 1393, from St. John Catholic Church, presented a check of $4,910.84 to The Arc of Carroll County. The funds were raised from the group's "Tootsie Roll Drive - Campaign for people with Intellectual Disabilities," which is conducted annually in the fall. Pictured, from left, are Knights Bill Norton, Rob Nestorick and Andy Keefer; Grand Knight Mike Johnson; Don Rowe, executive director of The Arc; O'Ryan Case, the Arc's director of development; and Charlie Kohler, District Deputy for The Knights of Columbus.
